5. (Internal Use Only - JSW) [REDACTED] NSA, called to report his discussion with Representative Richard Poff concerning the forthcoming report of the National Commission for Reform of Title 18. [REDACTED] specifically took up section 798 and the omission of the wiretap provisions. Mr. Poff agreed 100% with the NSA position and immediately telephoned the Staff Director requesting that he be in touch with [REDACTED] for a discussion and modification of the report. [REDACTED] advised Mr. Poff that other agencies were also concerned, specifically mentioning CIA. Mr. Poff suggested that he have a CIA representative accompany him to the meeting with the Staff Director. I advised [REDACTED] that I would be happy to go with him when the appointment is set. I indicated to [REDACTED] that we had not yet talked with Mr. Poff but still plan to do so.

6. (Secret - JMM) Talked to Frank Slatinshek, Acting Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who said Chairman Rivers wants a briefing tomorrow updating the same sensitive subject we discussed last week. See Memo for the Record.

7. (Internal Use Only - JMM) Victor Zafra, OMB, called to say that OMB approved the immediate submission to Congress of Title II of our proposed "legislative package" on retirement. He said the problems of "equitable share of normal cost" and of "unfunded liability" which were interrelated posed certain difficulties and that in the letter he is sending us confirming the approval of Title II he would state that we plan to work together to resolve these difficulties on the Title I items in time for submission to the next Congress.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Frank Slatinshek, Acting Chief
Counsel, House Armed Services Committee
Re Cienfuegos

1. Today I told Mr. Slatinshek that there had been no significant changes on Cienfuegos--that the barges were still in Cienfuegos harbor although the Soviet submarine tender and rescue tug had moved out toward the Gulf of Mexico.

2. Slatinshek said that Chairman Rivers wanted an updated briefing plus a look at the latest photos at 0900 tomorrow morning. He said we should bring along both the old pictures and the new pictures which Rivers would want to compare.
